

House Resolution No. 3468

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has brought great commitment and steadfast dedication to the teaching profession; and

Whereas, Brad Peck, an esteemed resident of Independence, Missouri, has distinguished himself as the 2005 Independence Teacher of the Year; and

Whereas, Brad Peck has played an integral role in the educational development of several Missouri youngsters as an American History teacher at Truman High School, where he also teaches a dual integrated class with an English teacher called Recent American Arts and Culture; and

Whereas, Brad Peck received his Business degree from William Jewell College and after five or six years in the business world he decided to become an educator; and

Whereas, Brad Peck works to make history "come alive" for his students through outside activities which include field trips to the Truman Presidential Library and Museum, the Steamboat Arabia Museum, and the site of the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing; and

Whereas, Brad Peck also does a project twice a year which involves students interviewing veterans from World War II, the Korean War, and the Vietnam War:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Brad Peck at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for 2005 Independence Teacher of the Year, Brad Peck.
